Why should you start a car franchise in Europe?

Europe's automotive industry is a vibrant sector of the economy, generating many jobs and business opportunities for entrepreneurial individuals. With new cars constantly being manufactured and sold, there is a lot of room in the market for automotive franchises that offer valuable car-related products, repair services and valeting services.

How do I prove a car was converted in Austria?

This must be proven by an approval of the vehicle manufacturer or his authorised representative in Austria (importer) or by an expert opinion of a test centre (e.g. overall expert opinion of TÜV AUSTRIA AUTOMOTIVE GMBH, regarding all components with which the vehicle was converted).

Are automotive franchises a good idea?

Often, these automotive franchises are van based, meaning you will have low overheads because you don't need to lease actual commercial space for your business. Take the time to consider an automotive franchise, which could be your way into a growing industry with high earning potential.
